EAST GIPPSLAND

Learn Locals

access training in your community

We are made up of Learn Local organisations throughout Central and East Gippsland working together with industry partners to deliver flexible training options to help you learn skills for study, work and life.

Our qualified trainers provide current and relevant education programs across a wide range of industry sectors including health, disability, retail, tourism, hospitality, construction, trades, business and horticulture.

Learn Local providers are recognised as having a connection and understanding of their local communities and because of this are best equipped to deliver flexible programs that genuinely meet learners needs at a local level whilst effectively supporting them as they return to study, improve their literacy and numeracy skills, gain a qualification, and broaden their employment, education and volunteering options.

All this and affordable fees!
